Monetary offerings will be given to the ELCA Disaster Response to help eliminate World Hunger.

Fundraiser ends October 29th

Come for breakfast fellowship

The women and men of NHELCC gather for a time of fellowship and breakfast at local restaurants every month. There is no agenda, just a friendly gathering for good food and good conversation.

Women's Breakfast
Wednesday, November 10th
8:30 AM

Shorty's Sunflower Café
1494 North Charlotte Street

Reservations are needed. To reserve your seat, contact Sandy Wesner at (215) 679-9021 by Monday, November 8th.

Men's Breakfast
Saturday, November 13th
8:00 AM

Brookside Family Restaurant
1338 North Charlotte Street

No reservations needed. For more information, contact Ron Fegley.

Time is running out for you to donate to NHELCC ministries through the Amazing Raise program which generates a bonus from the TriCounty Community Network.

You can donate at <https://www.amazingraisetricounty.org>, mail your donation to the church, or drop off your donation during church office hours (9 AM – 3 PM, Monday – Friday). Help NHELCC reach its goal of $15,000.

Thanksgiving 1863 Then & Now, any difference? You be the judge

President Lincoln in 1863 made a proclamation to observe thanksgiving as a Nation, crippled by a civil war perpetrated by hatred, to observe and dine with others in peace. Today in 2021, our Nation and community is threatened by hatred once again that possibly will thrust us into a divided state. However; as was then as is now, it is a time to remind ourselves of the unity we “all” have as one nation under God, Christians and “all” being children of God.

Lincoln appeals to the nation then and his words resound today with the message, “It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and one voice by the whole American People.” As was then, we have recently brought home soldiers from afar from conflict and war.

While there may be strife and divided communities abroad; it is my hope that we, who tend to be called upon as a presence of peace in other nations, may find a way to find with one heart and one voice by the whole American People in our homes and community to find peace. Let us embrace the words written in 1863 to inspire us all to truly thank God for all our blessings this year and years to come.

This Thanksgiving, may we all place our politics, our ambitions, and differences aside to truly gather and thank God. Peace and prayers of thanksgiving for your presence and service unto our Lord.

Pastor Scott

President Lincoln's Proclamation for the Recognition of Thanksgiving

Washington, D.C.
October 3, 1863

By the President of the United States of America.

A Proclamation.

The year that is drawing towards its close, has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added, which are of so extraordinary a nature, that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to foreign States to invite and to provoke their aggression, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere except in the theatre of military conflict; while that theatre has been greatly contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union.

Needful diversions of wealth and of strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defense, have not arrested the plough, the shuttle or the ship; the axe has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines, as well of iron and coal as of the precious metals, have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege and the battle-field; and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect continuance of years with large increase of freedom.

No human counsel hath devised nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gracious gifts of the Most High God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered mercy. It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and one voice by the whole American People.

I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of Noember next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens. And I recommend to them that while offering up the ascriptions justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to His tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and Union.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this Third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States the Eighty-eighth.

By the President: Abraham Lincoln

William H. Seward,
Secretary of State

Sponsor a Christmas tree

During the Christmas season, Christmas trees will adorn the sanctuary and Welcome Center. Sponsors are needed for these three trees. If you would like to sponsor one, two, or all three trees, contact Church Office Manager Susan Gutshall at (610) 326-1335. Sponsors may be individuals, families, or groups. Thank you in advance for your help to beautify the sanctuary and welcome center this Christmas.

Poinsettias add beauty to sanctuary

Help to decorate the sanctuary this Christmas with poinsettias. The Altar Guild will order plants in 6.5" pots with five blooms. The suggested donation is $9.00 per plant. Plants may be sponsored in memory of (for someone who has passed away) or in honor of (someone who is living). The sponsored plants will be listed in the Christmas Eve bulletins.

To sponsor one or more plants, complete a Poinsettia Order form and return the form along with payment (checks made payable to NHELCC) to the church. Be sure to include the number of plants you would like. Also, be sure to mark the order form if you will pick up your plants or if you wish to have the plant given to a homebound member. Plants may be picked up AFTER the 7:00 PM Christmas Eve Service.

For your convenience, an order form is included in this newsletter. Call the church office if you need additional forms. Forms and payment should be mailed to the church office, placed in the offering plate, or dropped off at the mail slot next to the Fellowship Hall entrance. Orders are due by November 28, 2021.

A Note from Nikki Young

Directory of Children, Family and Youth Ministry

Wow! The start of this year has been a bit of a whirlwind. Sunday School has been up and running and we are having weekly group openings together. We have had some Flutter Youth Group events. We've given out Bibles to our third graders. We've celebrated and had fun with the Harvesting Hope Fair. We just started our confirmation class and are gearing up to do first communion. We continue to have families returning to church and Sunday School and that is a wonderful thing!

So, what's next? We are looking ahead of course to Advent and Christmas. I am looking to do some small events within our age groups. A gathering once a quarter for the 3-5 grades and the same for those 2nd grade and under. If this is something that is of interest to you or your kids, please let me know as I do need some parent (or perhaps youth/older sibling help) with these. Please consider if you'd like to help and contact me!

I am greatly enjoying being here and getting to know our children, youth and families. I think this fall has been such a blessing. As always please let me know if you have any questions or ideas. My door is open and I can't wait to continue to get to know all of you.

P.S. Please note that some people are saying they are getting my emails in their junk mail. Please check there or add nikki.young@newhanoverlutheran.org to your address book to be sure you are getting emails from me!

Advent Event

We are working on planning a family Advent/Christmas Craft afternoon. We are looking to having some people lead a craft at a table and a few folks to help plan the day. Please save the date of Sunday, December 5th, and we will have details out soon! We will have things for all ages to participate in. If you are interested in helping out with this, contact Nikki Young at the church office or at nikki.young@newhanoverlutheran.org.

Thank you

Pastor Scott wishes to thank the fellowship committee and everyone for the joyous time of gathering for Pastor Appreciation Sunday.

Thursdays at Ten

Thursdays at Ten is a discussion/fellowship gathering which meets Thursdays, 10 – 11:30 AM in room 33. Might even be some good snacks! Starting topic: “A Quote A Day Keeps the Blues Away.” We’ll explore all kinds of meaningful quotes – some well-known, some others not so much and figure out how they can nourish our spiritual lives and help us let go of some of the stresses surrounding us these days. Contact Deacon Carol for more information.

FLUTTER explores a corn maze

Friday, November 5th - 6:30 PM

Meet at the Wilcox Farms Corn Maze. Bring a flashlight and a friend.

Cost is $8/person. For groups of ten or more, the cost is $6/person.

For more information, contact Jen Boyer (jcboyer0408@gmail.com) or Lindsey Waltermyer (GoldieLW@gmail.com).

SENIORS FAITH FORMATION MINISTRY

A Seniors Christmas Gathering “Deck the Halls!”

Thursday, December 9th, noon

Bring a bagged lunch and some Christmas cookies to share. We’ll provide Hot Wassail, other treats and lots of fun, including the sharing of your most loved Christmas traditions as well as hearing a little bit about PA Dutch Christmas customs. We hope you’ll join us and get the holiday season going with your “mature and wise” friends at NHELCC! Watch for more details to come and a sign-up sheet in the Welcome Center. Also, you can sign up by contacting Deacon Carol at carol.detweiler@newhanoverlutheran.org or leave her a message at the church office.

Meet the folks who will be serving you

- | | |
|---|----------------|
| The members of our Senior’s Ministry Planning and Resource Team | |
| Linda Adams (Walnut Woods liaison) | Carol Estes |
| Jane Johnson | Jane Manthorne |
| Barbara Morris (Frederick Living liaison) | Jean Moser |
| Lucille Powell (Prayer Chain liaison) | Joan Price |
| Sandy Wesner | Jo Anne Wirt |

We’re very grateful they are willing to jump on board to help work with our seniors - a huge thanks to all of them! And if you have any questions about Seniors Ministry, or have ideas to share for what we can offer, feel free to speak to any of them!

“Caring Connections”

We’ll be starting up another new piece of Senior’s Ministry which will involve a card ministry and a calling ministry which will be small, ongoing ways to check in on our seniors and let them know we are thinking about them. Just a way to say to folks, “We are thankful for you!”

Senior Ministries Survey Form

It’s not too late to turn in a survey form! There are extra copies in the Welcome Center. They can be returned to the marked black tray in the Welcome Center. Or, contact Deacon Carol at carol.detweiler@newhanoverlutheran.org or call the church office and we’ll send you one!

Thanks for having lunch with us!

A big thank you to all who attended our Seniors Kick-Off Lunch on September 23rd. A great group gathered and enjoyed a great meal prepared by “Chef Chris”, which was followed by great discussion! A special thanks to Planning Team members, who did a beautiful set-up and helped with clean-up, Chris Fatzinger for his delicious food, Donna Kehs for her wonderful desserts and to all who came out to jump-start our new ministry. We are still working on a name, but we’ll come up with one! And we’re getting wonderful ideas for future events. Watch for details!

“A Senior Moment”

“A little thing is a little thing, but faithfulness in little things is a great thing.”

I’ve spent the last several weeks looking for the little blessings in life that buoy one’s faith. Past days have touched our lives with extended family illnesses, with one resulting in the loss of a beloved sister-in-law. Last week Denny and I stood at her graveside and said goodbye at a private family burial. The public memorial service would come at the end of the month. It was good to gather just as family - it’s large one - and be together in community to remember this most wonderful sister, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Later, gathered in the picnic grove adjoining her church we broke bread together and nourished our wearied bodies. And soon stories about Betty fed our hurting souls as well. Being there amidst tall-standing trees I felt God’s hand reach down and cup us, letting the small blessings of laughter, remembrances, the happy sounds of great grandchildren coming from the playground, the traces of my sister-in-law’s facial features gently traced on next generations, all soothe our hurt. Hope rose up within that grove. Betty’s spirit was with us. That following Sunday morning I got into my car to leave for church. I looked back to the house before pulling away. There, so small, in the bottom corner of our family room window, was the beloved face of my little over two years old grandson, Alfie, watching Mom-Mom leave for work. My heart overflowed. Family. Legacy. Promise and hope for the future. One little face. Reminding me that I was loved. By Alfie. And by a very big God. A truly great thing.

Peace & Blessings,
Deacon Carol

Prayer Ministry

Prayer Chain

Need a prayer lifted up? The NHELCH Prayer Chain Ministry is here for you. If you need a prayer, know someone else who could use one, or just want someone to pray about peace and healing for our communities, nation and world, we will lift those prayers up! All information will be kept confidential. To request a prayer, contact Deacon Carol at carol.detweiler@newhanoverlutheran.org or call the church office (610-326-1335), leave her a voice mail and she will pass it on to the prayer group. Also, you can contact Deacon Carol to update circumstances or have a name removed from the Prayer Chain. Your prayers will be "delivered"!

Prayer Shawls

If you know of anyone in need of a prayer shawl - feels like you are being hugged by prayers, healing and love - contact Deacon Carol or Pastor Scott. We will be glad to provide one! And a person doesn't need to be a church member to receive one.

Additional knitters are needed. If that's a ministry you would like to do, just contact Deacon Carol for more information!

Painting Event

We had a great day at our September 25th painting event. It was a fantastic fall day filled with fellowship and laughter. Amy's Art Shack did donate $15 per person back and we raised a total of $405. By popular demand we will be doing this again after the holidays. We are looking at doing a winter scene on Sunday, January 9th, in the afternoon. More details and sign up will follow.

Harvesting Hope Fair!

The first annual Harvesting Hope Fair was a great success! Over 600 people were estimated to have attended; however, more astounding was the joy and positive feedback from those attending the fair. We couldn't have done it all without the support of our Sponsor Thrivent and our volunteers.

Thrivent Financial partner John Ungerman and his staff sponsored the event and helped us coordinate the many activities. We cannot thank enough John and Thrivent for investing in the New Hanover community. In addition, the Thrivent community of volunteers collected pantry items for emergency food kits for our Loaves and Fishes Food Ministry.

Over 40 volunteers helped the setup and running of the fair. From the delicious Food supplied by Loaves and Fishes to the bouncy house games and hayrides, our volunteers made the day special for all who attended. Many of the attendees left with fresh organic vegetables from our Garden of Hope!

In addition to Thrivent, thanks to Sarahsway Farms who provided hours of a good old-fashioned hayride along with antique and modern farm equipment. A huge thanks also to our very own New Hanover Volunteer Fire and Rescue teams, Gilbertsville Ambulance crew, along with the New Hanover Police force brought vehicles and demonstrations for all ages to enjoy climbing on and seeing what it is like in a day of their duty to serve and protect our community.

Thanks to the Artim racing team for allowing children to sit in their dragsters, and to all the nonprofits who came and provided details on how they serve our community, Trellis for Tomorrow, NHELCC Peer Support Ministry, PJ Project, Relay for Life/Bark for Life, Kencrest Good Neighbors Time Bank, Scout Troop 367, and the Boyertown Library. It truly was a day to have fun, play games and do it all for a great cause.

The Amazing Raise Challenge for our ministries raised over $3,000 from the fair. To find more about the challenge go to <https://www.newhanoverlutheran.org/nhelcc-and-the-amazing-raise/> on our website and see how you can contribute this year or plan for next year. Thank you for all who contributed to the Amazing Raise and those who made this a great day!

Mission Statement

The mission of New Hanover Evangelical Lutheran Church is to utilize the dedication of our church family, the strengths of our programs, the resources of our facilities, and history of our congregation to serve as a beacon of worship, welcome, peace, and support for our community.

Vision Statement

The vision of New Hanover Evangelical Lutheran Church is to love our neighbors as ourselves, and live and serve as an example of God's Grace for our community and our world.

NHELC Scouting Ministry Turns 70!

Seventy years ago, on September 30, 1951, New Hanover Lutheran Church was granted its initial charter from the Boy Scouts of America to operate the Cub Scout Program for boys in elementary school. A year later, the Scout Troop was formed to accommodate older Scouts. Since then, much has changed, but one thing is for certain: SCOUTING IS FLOURISHING in New Hanover. Today, NHELC holds the charter of three Scouting Units: Cub Scout Pack 367 with more than 60 boys and girls in kindergarten through fifth grade and two Scouts BSA Troops, one for boys and one for girls. Troops are for Scouts who are in sixth through twelfth grades. The Scouting program has specific objectives, commonly referred to as the "Aims of Scouting." They are character development, leadership development, citizenship training, and personal fitness. Leadership development is also one of Scouting's eight methods contributing to both good character and good citizenship.

All three Scouting units are currently meeting weekly, primarily inside using Fellowship Hall and the Sunday School classrooms. Cub Scout Pack 367 meets weekly on Mondays from 7:00-8:00. Troop 367B (with more than 40 Scouts) and Troop 367G (currently with 7 Scouts) meet weekly on Tuesdays from 6:30-8:15, primarily in Fellowship Hall. Activities of all three units are numerous, including working on requirements towards rank advancements, merit badges, and other awards.

Of course, you can't take the outing out of Scouting. Camping, service and conservation projects, hiking, biking, boating, nature appreciation, sports, and many other activities help the Scouts to develop a love of the outdoors in our Scouts. The Cub Scouts and their families (more than 60 campers!) spent a weekend in October camping at Evansburg State Park. The Troops enjoyed their September camping trip at Camp Delmont in Pennsburg, where they competed in a cardboard canoe race in which the canoes were made by the Scout Patrols with only cardboard, glue, duct tape, and paint. This was the first race of this kind for these Scouts, and let's just say the Scouts learned a lot that weekend (and the adults were thoroughly entertained).

This summer, the Scouts participated in events including whitewater rafting, an Iron Pigs baseball game, camping at Fort Mifflin in Philadelphia, summer camp, and a pool party. One group of nine older Scouts and three adults from Troop 367G spent two weeks on a trip of a lifetime hiking more than 120 miles at a special Scout Ranch called Philmont in Cimarron, New Mexico. More than two years of training were required by the crew to prepare for this trip, and they all say it was worth every moment to have such memories to cherish for the rest of their lives, despite wading through rivers, and in the rain and thunderstorms and even being hailed on three separate times!

The Scouts and their families and the registered adult leaders are very grateful to the Congregation of New Hanover Lutheran Church for sponsoring our Scouting units and for providing such wonderful facilities for us to use as our Scouting home base.

If you or someone you know would be interested in starting their own Scouting Adventure, pass this article along to them and encourage them to email info@pack367.com (boys and girls in grades K-5) or info@troop367.net (boys and girls in grades 6-12).

Scout Oath	Scout Law
On my honor, I will do my best To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; To help other people at all times; To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.	A Scout is Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean, and Reverent.
